FESTIVAL NEWS: Due to continued growth of our annual Lebanese Heritage Festival, the festival is restructured to follow eparchial and governmental fiscal guidelines. The former large committee was difficult to schedule and manage meetings. The new Festival Committee consists of Monsignor Marini as chairman with the assistance of David Wagner and Connie Siconolfi. As usual, parishioners and friends will be asked to help in the prepping, cooking/baking and general operation of the event. The Festival Committee is now working on setting the cooking and baking schedule, and an informational meeting for volunteers and workers will be held soon.

PAUL MAROON HONORED: Keystone College is having a fundraiser honoring alumnus, vintner and native Scrantonian Paul Maroon. A special invitation has been extended to our parishioners to attend the event on Thursday, June 21st for a festive evening of Middle-Eastern and Mediterranean cuisine paired with tastings from Paul's winery (Maroon Wines of Napa, California).
